

Kinetic Calendar: Built for Better Visibility into Change Management

It's no secret, when it comes to online calendar-publishing for Change Management, Kinetic Calendar is the icing on the cake. Now that your organization has done the work to ensure standardized methods, processes and procedures for Change Management, let Kinetic Calendar take you to the next level. Kinetic Calendar will provide you with instant visibility to your BMC® Remedy® data. Kinetic Calendar is the only product available that captures any type of Remedy data and displays it in an online actionable calendar format. There are many good reasons why Kinetic Calendar is gaining traction.

Built for Better Control.

Kinetic Calendar empowers the end users to take control of their Change Management process. Kinetic Calendar allows the end user to define any type of BMC Remedy data information that he or she wants to display in a change calendar format. Furthermore, Kinetic Calendar doesn't just offer one change calendar view, it offers unlimited change calendar views. Kinetic Calendar enables real control of real change processes.

Built for Better Functionality.

Kinetic Calendar enables complete functionality. You will have the flexibility to assign who can view, change and manage calendars, no matter how many subsidiaries or user groups you want to include within your organization. Change calendars can be made public or private. Kinetic Calendar enables approved users to create and modify strategic and tactical change events. What's more—Kinetic Calendar allows the end user to customize the change calendar's look and feel specific to his or her organization and/or its subsidiaries.

Built for Better Visibility.

Kinetic Calendar offers the ability to view relevant BMC Remedy data for approved user groups. Kinetic Calendar exposes change data views to a broader user community. Kinetic Calendar has the ability to publish relevant information to endless number of users in a user community such as managers, CAB and IT groups. To top it off, Kinetic Calendar provides the means to immediate, 24/7, unlimited access to viewing change events.

Built for Better Value.

Kinetic Calendar is the quickest and easiest way to display change events from multiple forms and applications on the same change calendar. Kinetic Calendar is easy to configure and implement. Kinetic Calendar offers a no-hassle installation. It can be installed in one day. It can be up and running and providing value to your organization—within five days. Furthermore, Kinetic Calendar is so easy to use that anyone in your organization can view event details for streamlining Change Management. Kinetic Calendar does not require BMC Remedy development skills.
